I met Mr. Gergely Márk for the first time in our Rosarium in Zvolen, Slovakia so ten years ago or maybe more. He visited us with Mr. Silvester Györy (now my very good friend) and with its wifes. He was interested mainly in Geschwind's roses growing in the Rosarium over town Zvolen.

Then we met sometimes in his Rosarium in Törökbálint, near Budapest, Hungary, in his beautiful May Rose Presentations. Roses were in full blooming and in so hot weather, without wattering (as Mr. Márk said) was fascinating!

Draw me a number of his remarkable roses, but no more than about 'Iréнке' and 'Rozália'. Unfortunately, both are quite sensitive to the frost in Central Slovakia. The list includes roses, which thrive in our whole and are more hardy here.

I will be very glad if Mr. Márk succeed bred much so remarkable roses and happy to meet with him and others rose friends, experienced a pleasant time at his garden in Törökbálint again!
